

THE MACALLAN

WHISKY BAR & LOUNGE

麥卡倫威士忌吧

The world's first Macallan Whisky Bar is dedicated to the makers of Macallan and their ambrosial drink.

This exquisite whisky bar is designed with Old World charm in mind and dressed handsomely in heavy oak wood panels and furniture from Scotland and England, including original Chesterfield leather sofas and Jacobean rugs.

The concept was conjured up to reflect this period of time... timber paneling lined the heavy walls and the best of silk velvet swathed and basked in the faceted casement windows.

The many Scottish single malts you see behind the bar are a liquid library of the last century, recording the most recent slice of a varied and glorious history.

Featuring “The Macallan 60 Years in Lalique”, “The Macallan 57 Years in Lalique”, “The Macallan Vintage range from 1937”, “The Glenlivet 70 Years”.

We offer the finest examples from the industries of America, Ireland, Japan as well as the new breed of craft distillers around the world. The liquid within each of these flagons is different to the other - some subtly so, some dramatically - but each represents a pinnacle of taste and tradition.

Whisky is a drink that has delighted and fascinated drinkers the world over for centuries; The standard is set to equal or surpass the high level of expertise from the great whisky maker Macallan and with a selection of over 365 whiskies, you can sip your favoured choice of the best Scottish malts while smouldering flickers from the fireplace and the soft shine from chandeliers of stag antlers, just as you would in a distinguished club in Scottish highlands to create the ultimate experience, it is your turn to discover its magic.

Glenury Royal 12 Years Old / Bot. 1970's

Glenury Royal was founded in 1825 near Stonehaven, Aberdeenshire in the Eastern Highlands by Captain Robert Barclay. The name of the distillery was taken from the nearby Glen in the district of Ury. Barclay himself was a colourful character. As well as being the Laird of Ury and the local MP, he was also a famous athlete who had walked from London to Birmingham in two days in 1799. He also had the somewhat peculiar distinction of being the first person to have walked 1000 miles in 1000 hours, a feat he accomplished in 1808.
