In 1600's Barbados, Rum was described as "Rumbullion, alias Kill-Divil, which is made of sugar canes distilled, a hot, hellish, and terrible liquor".

Terrible not at all, is what we think and certainly also not the Royal British Navy, which replaced their good old English ale with this Rumbullion. Let us be Pirates once more and taste this hellish liquid.

WHISKY

This versatile liquid has more stories
than a book can tell.

It is said to be invented by the Irish,
brought to the English and perfected by the Scottish.

The American friend likes to add an E to the word and some corn or rye to their Whiskey.

The only thing we know is that it should be drunk by everyone.

Cheerio to this!

COGNAC

This luxurious spirit of the Bourgeoisie can only be produced in the village of Cognac in the Department of Charante or Charente-Maritime in, of course, France.

A great tradition and heritage embodied by this grape distillate delivers a certain kind of seriousness.

Hence, please enjoy it responsibly and do not spill a drop!
